

Q and A

Notification of Staying in Thailand

Q: I am KKU student and get Non-ED Visa for a year, do I have to make the notification of staying in Thailand over 90 days?

A: Students who have been granted a Non-Immigration Visa for a temporary stay in Thailand and intend to stay longer than 90 days must report every 90 days at Khon Kaen immigration in person.

Q: I left Thailand for a week to visit my family and return on 28th April 2019, my friend said I have to report the immigration in person within 48 hrs, right?

A: Yes, students have to report within 48 hrs. after returning to Thailand at the immigration in person to maintain their notification of residence.

Q: If I miss the report after returning to Thailand within 48 hrs., what will happen to me?

A: The record information of your residence will be shown as the address you made the first 90-day report at the immigration.

For example, you graduated from University A in Bangkok and moved to Khon Kaen for studying doctoral Degree. The first notification of a 90-day report made in Bangkok so the recorded residence information is in Bangkok. You visited hometown and missed the 48-hr. report after returning to Thailand. When you make the 90-day report at KK immigration, the information of your residence is in Bangkok. Therefore, you have to pay for the fine.

In case your first notification of a 90-day report made in Khon Kaen, there is no problem.

Q: If I travel to another province in Thailand, do I have to report at the immigration?

A: No, the landlord or house owner (hotel or house you are staying with during your traveling) will report immigration.

Note: The immigration law is subject to change without notice. Students have to contact immigration directly for more information.
